

A Literature Review Outline

Abstract: Taking in general about a chosen topic

Keywords: Cloud computing, practical, information systems, the financial sector.

Introduction: Write widely about the chosen topic (Cloud computing).

What is Cloud computing: Cover the main study of Cloud computing and what are the pros and cons.

Types of Cloud: Write down the types of cloud computing services, differences and which one should be chosen depending on the technologies needed.

Cloud service models: This section will cover the main models of cloud computing and how cloud service providers support it.

What are the benefits and risks of cloud computing for the Financial sector?: We will talk about the benefits and risks of migrating critical services to the cloud, especially for financial institutions.

What are the gaps in cloud computing for the financial sector?: Write about the gaps in this literature and how we should avoid them.

Conclusion: Summary of the literature review.

Add the used references.